

Luncheon Guest

Elsewhere on the service scene yesterday was the luncheon given by Mme. T. G. Kelly, wife of the Indian Air Attache, in honor of Mme. Sharda Mukherjee, wife of the chief of staff of the Indian Air Force.

Mme. Mukherjee, whose husband is currently touring United States Air Force bases, flew down from New York yesterday especially for the luncheon.

On September 29, the Kellys will give an informal cocktail reception in honor of the Mukherjees.

Among other guests at the ladies luncheon yesterday, which Mrs. Kelly gave in her Silver Spring home, were: Mrs. Mehta, wife of the Indian Ambassador; Mme. Gunewardene, wife of the Ceylon Ambassador; Mme. Notowidigdo, wife of the Indonesian Ambassador; Mrs. Kamat, wife of the Indian Economic Minister; and Mrs. Heycock, wife of the British Air Attache.

Wives of United States officials also attended, including Mrs. Harold H. Burton, wife of the Supreme Court Associate Justice; Mrs. James H. Douglas, wife of the Undersecretary of the Air Force; Mrs. Thomas D. White, wife of the vice chief of the Air Force; Mrs. Charles P. Cabell, wife of the deputy director of the Central Intelligence Agency; and Mrs. Leon Johnson, wife of the head of the United States delegation to the NATO Standing Group.

Spanish Visitor Arrives

Lt. Gen. Antonio Alcubilla, chief of the Central General Staff of the Spanish Army, was to arrive at National Airport today for a five-day visit during which he will be extensively entertained by United States and Spanish military dignitaries.
